Dear Red Cross Supporter:

In the aftermath of the catastrophic earthquakes in Haiti, the American Red Cross stands with our Red Cross and Red Crescent partners around the globe to transform your donation into relief and recovery. Our combined efforts represent the largest single-country relief operation in Red Cross history. Thank you for being a part of this monumental response effort.

Your timely contribution of $2340.00 on July 20, 2010, has put aid directly into the hands of more than 1.3 million people affected by these earthquakes. Your support translates into critical relief supplies like blankets, hygiene kits and mosquito nets. Since the earthquake struck, your gift has empowered the Red Cross to distribute more than 60 million liters of safe drinking water, treat tens of thousands of people in Red Cross field hospitals and mobile clinics, and provide critical financial assistance that will help families meet their immediate needs and restart their businesses. In the coming days, the Red Cross will begin constructing stronger, transitional shelters to protect those left homeless from the upcoming hurricane season.

American Red Cross volunteers have joined more than 900 Red Cross and Red Crescent workers from around the world in a coordinated effort to meet both the immediate and long-term challenges that stand between chaos and recovery for the people of Haiti. For victims of this unprecedented disaster, our work is the hope for tomorrow. This is a result of generous gifts from donors like you.

The American Red Cross stands ready to provide further assistance and will remain in Haiti until the job is done. We are grateful to have your support that brings hope and comfort to those affected by these devastating earthquakes. As the response evolves, please visit www.redcross.org or call 1-800-797-8022 to learn more about your gift at work. Once again, thank you for your compassionate support of the American Red Cross.

Sincerely,

Lauri Rhinehart
Vice President, Development Operations
